State Treasurer Holds Unclaimed Property Event
Will help residents in Green Bay find and claim forgotten money

Madison— State Treasurer Kurt Schuller will be in Green Bay on Thursday, March 10th 2011 to help people find unclaimed property. The event, which is sponsored by Learning in Retirement, in partnership with the University of Wisconsin Green Bay, will begin at 10:00am and will be held in Room 230 of Rose Hall on the campus of UWGB.

“I’m happy to have the opportunity to reunite people with their money.” said Treasurer Schuller. “The Office of the State Treasurer processed a record number of claims last year – over 34,000 – and we look forward to breaking that record this year.”

Treasurer Schuller will be available to the media.
